

Wanted: Urban Missionary for Sydney's East

Kingsford Church of Christ is looking to fill a full time (or possibly part-time) paid position to join our volunteer ministry team. The successful applicant will contribute in areas of Teaching, Leadership, Pastoral work and, significantly, Outreach into the surrounding community. We are particularly seeking someone who will bring a fresh perspective and who has a passion for working with and leading/mentoring a team in ministry to the multiracial primary to twenties age group.

Duties

Specific duties will be negotiated prior to appointment, but are likely to include:

- building relationships with external organisations, particularly student groups (local schools and University), for mutual benefit.
- involvement in worship service and other church activities
- overseeing weekly preaching program
- in conjunction with elders, working with existing ministry teams to encourage, refine, refocus or rejuvenate our ministries as appropriate.
- building pastoral relationships within the church.
- communicating goals and progress with the church, both formally and informally.

Essential Criteria

- A faith in Jesus Christ as Lord and Saviour, demonstrated in a life of commitment and obedience to Him.
- A passion for the lost and a demonstrated ability to take God's message to those who haven't heard it.
- A demonstrated ability to work effectively as part of a team, both as a leader and as a team member.
- Good communication skills with a sensitivity to the particular challenges of a multicultural environment.
- The ability to minister to and with youth and young adults.
- Experience in preaching and teaching from God's word.
- Love for people and God's word.

Desirable Criteria

- Experience ministering in a multi-cultural setting.
- Experience in pastoral work.

We are hoping to fill the position early in 2010 with initially a 3 year appointment.
